

PDP

Identify, Implement and Maintain Legal Compliance Requirements

Introduction This PDP has been designed to provide participants with the knowledge and tools to identify legal compliance requirements at their quarry, and then develop, implement, monitor and review appropriate compliance management systems.

Duration 1 Day

Potential Participants Area and Regional Managers, Quarry Managers, Senior Quarry Supervisors, Any person involved in a quarrying operation who fulfils a statutory management role,

CPD Points 7

Topics Covered Meet the knowledge component requirements of RIIGOV501D Unit of Competency:
Provide information about the scope of compliance procedures.
Implement and monitor management of compliance.
Implement, monitor and prioritise compliance requirements.
Implement, monitor and document procedures and training for compliance.

Provides an advanced knowledge component for legal compliance requirements and safety and health legal requirements in quarries.

Provide the knowledge and tools for Quarry Management personnel to:

- Identify legal compliance requirements at their respective quarry operations.
- Develop, implement, monitor and review compliance management systems.
- Meet pre-requisites for RIIRIS501D implement and maintain management systems to control risk.
- Prepare for on-site assessment of competency as part of the Quarry Management Certification System (QMCS).

The Institute of Quarrying
Australia

quarry.com.au