

10 Reasons to become an IQA Committee Member

1. Passion: Because your passionate about your industry and the IQA. Help the IQA reach its goals.
2. Development: Committee participation leads to uncovering business insights you can utilise in your professional and personal development.

You will develop a whole new skillset and improve skills you didn't realise you had. Whether it's chairing a meeting, coaching or mentoring or running an event, you will be able to add to your skill set.

3. Personal Brand Building: Build you personal brand by getting involved, it's not about who you know anymore – it's about who knows you!

Because it looks amazing on your CV. Employers look for these types of roles and the skills they show that you've developed on applications. They are a proven catalyst for job prospects.

4. Leadership Opportunities & Experience: Experience how the IQA works and the effort that goes into growing the IQA. Through active participation on a committee, you will have the opportunity to someday become a board member.
5. Relationships/Networking: – Joining the IQA committee helps build stronger relationships with like-minded people.
6. To lead the fun! As an IQA committee member, you are involved in organising activities and events to bring members together. There's no better feeling than seeing your idea or event come to life.
7. Pay it forward: Give back to your industry by making a difference in committee involvement.
8. Contribution: Contribute to the growth and future success of the IQA.
9. A chance for people to see you in action – show people how great you are!
10. Insider Sneak Peaks! – You'll know what's happening before everyone else!